Course Title

2012 IRC Transition from the 2006 IRC
This course has been approved by the Minnesota Department of Labor & Industry for 7 hours of Residential Contractor Continuing Education.

Course Description

This seminar will assist participants in implementing the transition from the 2006 IRC to the 2012 IRC. It will include relevant changes in the 2009 IRC. This PowerPoint presentation will provide interactive training that will focus on the key changes presented in the seminar material. Knowledge review questions will provide ample opportunity for participants to discuss and consider the changes.

Objectives

Upon completion, participants will be better able to:

- Identify the most significant differences between the 2006 IRC, the 2009 IRC, and the 2012 IRC.
- Explain the differences between the current and previous editions of the IRC.
- Identify changes in organization and code requirements.
- Identify the applicability of design, plan review, and inspection requirements.

Oak Ridge Hotel & Conference Center

★★ The contractor training provided at Oak Ridge will be in conjunction with ICC Upper Great Plains Region III Educational Institute for Building Inspectors/Officials. Along with the training there will also be a trade show at this site with vendors showing their construction products.

Instructor Andy Schreder, C.B.O.

Andy is the Building Official for the cities of St. Francis and Nowthen, located in northern Anoka County. Andy has presented continuing education seminars for MN licensed residential contractors for several years and brings a fresh perspective to building code enforcement with a desire to achieve code compliance through education and personal experience. His experience working with multiple jurisdictions provide a balanced background of knowledge that he brings to this seminar.

Who are 10,000 Lakes Chapter of ICC and AMBO?

10,000 Lakes is a local chapter of the International Code Council. AMBO is a statewide chapter of ICC representing building officials throughout the state. 10K and AMBO are non-profit organizations that are comprised of over 500 members that most likely include your local building inspector. Together, these chapters have strived to provide quality continuing education for building officials, contractors and anyone within the construction industry.
